

FAQ – Mississippi Day

What is Mississippi Day?

Mississippi Day is a free event open to the public. It's your chance to get a glimpse of the exciting things happening at Mississippi's flagship university. With hands-on activities, free performances, exhibits and tours, and demonstrations, Mississippi Day will engage and inform you about the valuable contributions the university makes to the people of Mississippi and beyond.

Where will programs take place?

On the Circle and surrounding areas at the University of Mississippi

Who should attend?

Everyone is invited. Bring your family and friends. There will be interesting, informative, and entertaining activities for parents and children, teens, current and prospective students, faculty, and staff, alumni, and the public.

How can I plan my day?

The website will be updated with more information about activities. Most programs run continuously from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., but some have specific times listed. There are many other exciting events happening on campus on 4/18, including the Regions Bank Grove Bowl, Ole Miss v. Vanderbilt Baseball series, the Blue Cross Blue Shield Get Read to Run Fun Run, play, etc. Come enjoy all a spring day at Ole Miss has to offer!

Where can I eat?

Food vendors will be near the Circle. You can also dine in the Student Union. Some groups will offer food demonstrations or tastings.

Where can I hear live music?

There will be music on Union Plaza.