UM/UMMC Research Day

April 4, 2018

10:00 a.m.— 3:00 p.m.

Norman C. Nelson Student Union | UMMC

Research Day is an opportunity for members of the university community and beyond to learn more about the scientific and scholarly research being conducted at the University of Mississippi and the University of Mississippi Medical Center.

The 2018 Research Day will feature 3-minute lectures and a poster session from UMMC and UM faculty, postdoctoral fellows, staff, and students. Faculty from the University of Mississippi's Flagship 7 campus and UMMC faculty will present keynote speeches and a panel discussion.

Registration is required. Register online at <http://j.mp/2FCK7J0> by March 2nd to present a poster or lecture and by April 4th to attend.
